

2010 CAPITAL CITY HOOPS CHALLENGE RECAP

November 28, 2010

The 1st annual Capital City Hoops Challenge tipped off this past weekend and it was a lot of great action as many of the top teams and top prospects from the Magnolia State put it down on both the boys and the girl's side. When the dust settled after an explosive day inside the gym at Tougaloo College, it was Callaway, Brandon, S.V. Marshall, Ridgeland and a host of others who really turned in solid efforts for the day. Here's a recap of all the games and standouts from each game.....

Lanier 62 Crystal Springs 43

The Bulldogs handled the Tigers behind the guard tandem of Quinton Watkins (22 pts) and Javerick Burrell (12 pts). Roman Lofton paced the Tigers with 19 points.

Pearl 55 Murrah 42

Tymond Howard scored 20 points and was supported by Fred Lee with 13 as the Pirates defeated the Mustangs. Daniel Francis led the Mustangs with a game high 24 points.

Clarksdale 50 Murrah 34 (girls)

Erica Collins scored 25 points and Dandy Dozen forward Seneca Walton scored 11 as the No. 3 ranked Lady Wildcats defeated the Lady Mustangs. Kalisha Washington chipped in 15 points in a solid effort for the Lady Mustangs.

Yazoo County 44 Clarksdale 40

DeAndre Scott scored 22 points to lead the Panthers over the Wildcats. Joshua Windham added 12 points for Clarksdale in a losing effort.

S.V. Marshall 49 Eastside 39

Junior guard Tamaricio Wilson scored 16 points to lead the Tigers to a victory over the Trojans. Eastside's Dandy Dozen center and LSU signee, Johnny O'Bryant scored 11 points in the defeat.

Ridgeland 67 Jim Hill 55

The Titans got 22 points from Southeastern Louisiana signee Donovan Ross and 21 points from Dandy Dozen guard LeAntwan Lockett and cruised to an easy win over the Tigers. Junior Center Jamal Hester added 16 for Ridgeland. The Tigers were led by senior guard Jeremy Moore with 21 points while highly regarded Junior wing Fred Thomas was held to 9 points.

Brandon 61 St. Stanislaus 58 2OT

This was the best game of the day despite trailing for the majority of the game the Bulldogs were able to pull even and force overtime, not once, but twice before pulling out the win in the second OT. In what was expected to be a battle between a pair of Dandy Dozen frontcourt players, Air Force Academy signee Daniel Grieves of St. Stanislaus and Georgetown signee Tyler Adams of Brandon the spot light was stolen by UT-Chattanooga signee Octavious Brown whose 21 points and clutch baskets keyed the Bulldogs victory, none of which was bigger than the contested three pointer he hit with seconds left in regulation to force the first overtime. Adams scored 11 despite constant double teaming. For the Rock-A-Chaws, Grieves matched Brown with 21 points and Arkansas State signee Johnny Zuppardo scored 16.

Callaway 49 Vicksburg 45 OT

In a low scoring nip and tuck contest Dandy Dozen guard Deville Smith scored 24 points, including a clutch buzzer beating three pointer at the end of regulation to force overtime, to lead the Chargers to a win in a battle between ranked teams. Vicksburg was lead by senior guard Dominique Brown with 14 points while the Gators' high scoring, Dandy Dozen forward and South Alabama signee Mychal Ammons was held to 10 points.
